With the above scenario, Navjivan Foundation considered sensitizing women folk as well as the male on what domestic violence is how it affects women's lives and to what extent. Even the present Legislation is being discussed among them. Throughout the year the women SHGs are given various training to enhance their entrepreneur skills by organization local volunteers. They are also given exposure venture to gain practical knowledge on different IGA. We are trying to help the groups to reach Beneficiary to Entrepreneur status through different capacity building programmes.

Navjivan Foundation has formed two several methods for social mobilization. Through this federation the members acquired greater awareness of their right and duties in the society. This federations has become an instrument for women to fight against all kinds of discrimination such as ill treatment, physical, mental and sexual harassment and atrocity like rape, wife beating and battering, eve teasing, murder due to dowry and so on . Besides all these, federations are taking up government schemes like road making, pond making, bridge making and erection of small buildings. Apart that, federations also assist village folk to get old age pension, Indira Awas Yojana, benefit of Annapurna yojana and others schemes of government. Campaign Against Female Feticide And Dignity Of Girl Child: Considering the Global Status report, the situation in India is very much alarming relating to sex ratio. Adding to that the situation Punjab is much worse than the other states 80% of districts in India have recorded an increasingly masculine sex ratio with the state of Punjab having the most masculine sex ratio. According to the decennial Indian census, the sex ratio in the 0-6 age group in India went from 104.0 males per 100 females in 1981, to 105.8 in 1991, to 107.8 in 2001, to 109.4 in 2011. The ratio is significantly higher in certain states such as Punjab and Haryana . This trend is mostly increasing in areas of high literacy. This needs sensitizing the population at large.

In order to increase community involvement for arresting the trend, Navjivan Foundation is taking all care to sensitize different stake holders through discussions in women Federation meetings, arranging workshops/small camps, door to door service at the block and Gram Panchayat Level. Also our volunteers help to PC& PNDT Advisory Committee by, contributing our ideas for policy formulation at the district level or when needing in others. These Balika Mandals Check discrimination, sexual abuse and both physical and mental harassment meted out to them from time and time.

Child labour Prohibition And Social Mobilization: Navjivan Foundation had organized day camp training programme for village level key leaders on child labour problems causes and strategy for prevention of child labour and it was started from 11th September 2005 at Maujanpur district in Uttar Pradesh in the district of Faizabad. So for that village level committee meetings were also organized by local volunteers in different part of India to motivate the rural community for mainstreaming child labour to formal school . Hence, child labour has been stopped to a great extent after Navjivan Foundation intervention and training/camps in different areas.

After being aware about the forcing them for earning through labour. Besides these, Navjivan Foundation also promoted strategic collaboration and rapport building with other network and more specifically with government departments and other stakeholders to ensure partnership in child right campaign with local related medias.

Rural Women Entrepreneurship Promotion : For the successful implementation of women empowerment project, Navjivan Foundation has been given training to different women SHGs on capacity building for different entrepreneurial skills, trade identification marketing concept as well as which women SHGs in different areas in India. Some of them have already started. Different micro enterprises such as badi making, turmeric powder making, raggy powder making, mung dal processing, groundnut packaging, til ladu making, minor forest producers processing etc.

These micro enterprises make them self-interdependent women marching towards progress with lots of vigor vitality pride and honor. Moreover, these women entrepreneur are now a days becoming successful because they consider themselves more as entrepreneur rather than traditional housewife. Thus, justifying the saying "self help is best help" and "God helps those who help themselves".

Programme For Tribal Socio-Economic Development: Since inception, Navjivan Foundation has been committed for socio economic development of the Tribals and the Schedule Cast community. The major focuses of activities are being concentrated for them. The programmes undertaken in the tribal related areas like Odisha, Bihar, Uttarakhand, Uttar Pradesh, Himachal Pradesh etc. the hill related areas by help of our local volunteers.

Prevention of women Trafficking : It is a regular phenomenon in all state like Chhattisgarh, Jharkhand, Odisha of India for last a decade that adolescents girls and women are being trafficked to other states i.e. Madhya Pradesh (Jhansi area) and Uttar Pradesh alluring them of false marriage and employment opportunities. Taking the advantage of their poverty, illiteracy and ignorance, the pimps are active in the district to pick-up the women and adolescents and they are being forced there for flesh-trade. Realizing seriously Navjivan Foundation intervened and started dialogue with district administrations, police personals, States Commission for women, State CM, Governors, Ministries, State Human Rights Commission etc. Orissa and highlighted the matter. Organization public grievance team are active in this matter, purpose to stop this illegal trafficking.

Consumer protection sensitization on rights and rules: As a part of economic development and protection of rural people from exploitation, we have taken up initiative to sensitize the people on consumer Rights and duties. For this, we have adopted the principle of creating peer educators in the village level who can ventilate the message to a large number of people. Senior Citizen Development, Old Age Home & Counseling to them :
This organization from 27th July 2004 give importance on Adult Education camp held on Govindpuri, New Delhi and there after our volunteers help them by counseling and send their grievances to the concern Ministries and on the field of old age home. Our volunteers take old people for few days to their home and treatment them.

In India two-thirds of the elderly males and 90-95 per cent of the elderly females are illiterate and a large number of them, particularly females, are single. Thus, the level of economic dependency is quite high. It has been estimated that about 18 million elderly males and 3.5 million elderly females would need jobs in 2001. These figures are based on the proportion currently working. This means that a huge amount of resources would be needed in order to create jobs for them in the future. Moreover, finances will also be required to maintain the 55 million not working, the majority of whom probably will not have adequate savings nor family assistance.

It has also been estimated that about 27 million elderly people would be ill at any given point of time in the year 2001 and thus need specialized medical care. In the absence of such medical facilities, large expenditures on infrastructure would be required to meet their needs.

The occurrence of physical disabilities is another important aspect of the aging process. There will be about 17 million disabled elderly persons in India in 2001, half of whom are likely to be visually disabled. The great majority of these would not be able to work and thus would be economically dependent.

In the absence of family support, they would expect help from the Government. Although State Governments and Union Territories have initiated schemes to provide some financial assistance to the handicapped or the destitute, the amount of such pensions ranges from only Rs. 30 to 60 per month. Moreover, owing to the paucity of funds available, the pensions cover only a fraction of the persons eligible.

Among the positive factors which have been sustaining the elderly in India is the strong attachment of family members to the elderly. Social pressure continues to be placed on persons who fail to discharge this responsibility to their elderly family members.

Thus it is important to strengthen these values and the capacity of families to cope with the problems of caring for the elderly. The elderly should be considered as human resources and their rich experience and residual capacities should be put to optimum use for the benefit of national development. Their ability to lead healthy and fruitful lives should be ensured by the Government.
